This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within three days from the conclusion of the sale, and the purchase money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneers, on or before delivery; in default of which, Messrs. Bangs & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

3. In preparing the Catalogue, care has been taken to make the description of every book accurate, but the sale of any volume or lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. The books will be on exhibition three days before the sale.

4. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

5. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency, if any, attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale if they think fit.

NOTE.

The Library of the late Dr. EDMUND B. O'CALLAGHAN, here Catalogued, was formed by him with especial reference to the History of New York as a Colony and a State. Everything bearing even collaterally upon that subject, Historical, Descriptive and Biographical, in Dutch, English and French, as well as in other modern languages, and in Latin, of any importance, he gathered together for his own study and use as the author of "The History of New Netherland," and the sole Editor of the great and invaluable series of volumes of its Records and Historical Documents published by the State Government of New York. The Library is the result of more than forty years' sole devotion to New York history. It is probably the best working Library of Americana in general, and New York Americana in particular, ever offered at public sale in this city.

The Titles, though seldom given without abridgment, except those of a few of the rarer works, which are given in full, will be found sufficient to show clearly the editions, the binding, and the general condition of the books. They have also had the great advantage before being printed of passing under the eyes of one whose critical knowledge of Americana is not exceeded by that of any living scholar, Dr. J. Gilmary Shea.

Pp. 28 Printed in the year 1700

——— A Speech in Parliament on the 10th day of January, 1701, by the Lord Belhaven, on the Affairs of the Indian and African Company, and its Colony of Caledonia. 4to, polished calf, uncut Edinburgh, 1701

——— Two Discourses Concerning the Affairs of Scotland; written in the year 1698. 12mo, polished calf Edinburg, 1698

The first of these discourses is in favor of the Scots Company for settling Caledonia, or Darien, and against a standing army; the second contains a curious defense of slavery, from the text of the Apostle Paul, wherein, after reviewing the state of slavery among the Antients, the author recommends that the poor of Scotland be reduced to that condition, and bound to serve the land proprietors for life; thus showing that modern arguments in favor of slavery, derived from Scripture, are at least not new.

——— Speeches by a Member of the Parliament which began at Edinburgh the 6th May, 1703. 12mo Edinburgh, 1703

——— An Account of a Conversation concerning a right Regulation of Governments for the Common Good of Mankind. In a Letter to the Marquiss of Montrose, the Earls of Rothes, Roxburg and Hadington, from London the 1st of December, 1703. In 1 vol, 12mo, polished calf, extra Edinburgh, MDCCIV.

Reference is made in both these tracts to the ill usage experienced by the Scotch in the affairs of Darien.

732 DARIEN. An Enquiry into the causes of the Miscarriage of the Scots Colony at Darien, or an Answer to a Libel entitled A Defence of the Scots Abdicating Darien. 8vo, pp. 8, 112, calf, gilt back Glasgow, 1700

This tract was declared by a Royal proclamation to be "a false, scandalous and traitorous libel," and ordered to be burnt by the common hangman.

733 ——— A Defence of the Scots Settlement at Darien. With an Answer to the Spanish Memorial against it. And arguments to prove that it is the Interest of England to join with the Scots, and protect it. To which is added, A Description of the Country, and a particular account of the Scots Colony. 8vo, pp. 8, 86, polished calf Edinburgh, 1699

The Dedication is signed Philo-Caledon. The author is said to have been Mr. Riddpath. It is ascribed, also, to a Mr. Fletcher, of Salton.

734 ——— A Short and Impartial View of the Manner and Occasion of the Scots Colony's coming away from DARIEN. In a Letter to a Person of Quality. Small 4to, pp. 40, polished calf, gilt Printed in the year MDCXCIX.

735 ——— A Full and Exact Collection of all the Considerable Addresses, Memorials, Petitions, Answers, Proclamations, Declarations, Letters and other Publick Papers relating to the Company of Scotland trading to Africa and the Indies, since the passing of the Act of Parliament, by which the said Company was established in June, 1695, 'till November, 1700. Together with a Short Preface (including the Act itself), as also a Table of the Whole Contents. 12mo, half roan, pp. x. 144. Contents and Catalogue of Publications on the Scots Settlement at Darien. pp. 4 Printed in the year 1700

It contains the Proclamations of the Earl of Bellomont, issued at New York and Boston, and of the Governors of Jamaica and Barbadoes, against the Scots Settlement at Darien. "Let any Scots-Man eat this Book, and he shall find it as bitter as Gall in his Belly, as at present I find it in mine."—Speech of Lord Belhaven.

736 DARIEN. Some Seasonable and Modest Thoughts, partly occasioned by, and partly concerning the Scots East India Company. Humbly offered to R. H., Esq., a Member of the present Parliament. By an unfeigned and hearty Lover of ENGLAND. Small 4to, polished calf, gilt edges.
Edinburgh, Re-printed by George Mosman, and are to be sold at his shop in the Parliament Closs 1696
Not mentioned in Rich.

737 ——— Letter from the Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland to the Honourable Council and Inhabitants of the Scots Colony of Caledonia in America. Dated at Glasgow, July 21, 1699. 4to, polished, calf extra, pp. 16 Glasgow, 1699

738 ——— Caledonia; or, the Pedlar turn'd Merchant. A Tragi-Comedy, as it was acted by His Majesty's Subjects of Scotland, in the King of Spain's Province of Darien. 4to, polished calf, pp. 30
London: Printed and sold by the Booksellers, 1700
A copy of this rare satirical tract sold at an auction in London in 1854 for £2 12*s.* 6*d.* It embodies many curious particulars not elsewhere to be found.

739 ——— Information touchant l'affaire de Darien. 4to, pp. 15, half morocco s. l. 1699
The Scotch having planted a Colony at Darien in 1698, the King of Spain issued this Protest against the proceeding, setting forth the Spanish title to the country and detailing their discoveries made since 1492.

740 ——— A Just and Modest Vindication of the Scots Design, for the having established a Colony at Darien. With A Brief Display, how much it is their Interest, to apply themselves to Trade, and particularly to that which is foreign. 8vo, half calf. Printed in the year 1699
Rich ascribes the authorship of this to James Hodges. But he had not seen the book itself.

Jesuit Relations Referring to Canada.

These extremely rare volumes are well known for their importance to American history. Dr. O'Callaghan, at the cost of much time and money, collected thirty-one out of the forty, and as now offered they approach a complete set more nearly than any catalogue has hitherto included. Some of the varieties are remarkably scarce. The reprints of the Biard, Lalemant, &c., by Dr. O'Callaghan, and of the 1656 and 1660 by Mr. Lenox, books already difficult to obtain, render this set extremely valuable.

1205 MISSIO CANADENSIS 1611
Reprinted from the Annuæ Litteræ. Only 25 copies. An account of Biard's Mission.

1206 RELATIO RERUM GESTARUM IN NOVA FRANCIA, 1613. 12mo, sheets folded.

THE | SIMPLE COBLER | OF | AGGAWAM IN AMERICA. | Willing | to help mend his Native Country, la | mentably tattered, both in the upper-Leather and Sole, with all the honest stitches he can take. | And as willing never to bee paid for his work, | by Old English wonted pay. | It is his Trade to patch all the Year long, gratis. | Therefore I pray Gentlemen Keep your purses. | By Theodore de la Guard. | 4to, sprinkled, calf Lond. 1647

This is beautiful copy of the first edition of this rare book. The author was the first Minister of Ipswich, Mass. He eventually returned to England, where he published this Volume to fan the flame against Charles I., who was executed the following year. It contains a most truculent and inhuman attack on the People of Ireland, which Daniel O'Connell noticed and answered in one of his Popular Speeches and in his Ireland.
